PCT chief under fire over GP budget cuts

■ BEAN AND GONE . . . the humble baked bean has helped super-slimmer James Skeates shed an amazing six stones in just six months. The weight the Haverhill carpenter lost is equivalent to 90 cans of his favourite food and he's now a trimmer 15 stones. See full story and more pictures – Page 3.

ANGRY residents and councillors have forced health chiefs to justify savage cuts to doctors' budgets at a public meeting.

Carole Taylor-Brown, chief executive of the Suffolk Primary Care Trust, and three other officials, were put on the spot at a meeting of Haverhill Town Council on Tuesday.

The room was too small to hold everyone who turned up but those who managed to get into the meeting rejected assurances that the cuts were justified.

Under a new national formula almost £300,000 is set to be trimmed from the budgets of the three doctors' practices in the town over the next five years.

Ms Taylor-Brown said the cuts were justified as they would restore equality of spending on patients across Suffolk.

A petition against the cuts has already gained more than 8,000 signatures.

Ann Sisson, practice manager at Christmas Maltings surgery, said it was inevitable that two doctors as well as nursing staff would be lost if the cuts went ahead.

Mrs Sisson said: "Haverhill has come out worse than any other town in Suffolk and nobody can tell us why. It is inevitable that we will lose doctors and that our patients

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

will suffer. This is worrying us to death. We have looked and looked at our figures and we cannot see any way round this.

"Under the funding formula although we have 10,000 patients, we only get funding for 8,600 of them. What am I supposed to do when I have only two doctors and two nurses on a Monday morning, what am I supposed to tell the patients?"

"We have no other services in Haverhill, there is no X-ray, nothing. Our GPs do far more than other surgeries."

Speaking at the meeting, Coun Ann Thomas pointed out that 750 new homes were to be built in northwest Haverhill, and a similar number at Hanchett village.

She said: "We have a very large young and elderly population and how much further from a hospital do we have to be to get more money?"

"We need the money now and we will need it even more in five years. [The PCT] has changed so many times, if [it] had been reorganised a few less times and got rid of a few administrators there might be more money in the pot."

"The NHS has always been top heavy with management."

Coun Maureen Byrne, said the PCT should return to the town to give an explanation to residents.

Petite pirates plunder pre-school

PARROTS, patches and pieces of eight were the order of the day as youngsters at a pre-school group got in the mood for a pirates day. All 15 under-fives attending the Thurlow and Bradley Pre-School group joined in the event by wearing costumes for the day. They also took part in a treasure hunt, enjoyed some pirate fare, had their faces painted, sang sea shanties and even tried their feet at walking the plank – but not across shark-infested waters.

Helen Frost, the group's leader, said the children had thoroughly enjoyed the experience, part of a special pirates week at the pre-school.

The group recently gained planning permission to build its own premises in the grounds of Thurlow

Primary School and is currently drawing up plans, applying for grants and launching a fund-raising campaign.

The popular group meets every weekday from 9am to 3.20pm, but closes early at 12.45pm on Tuesday and Friday.

Places are available for children aged two to four years. For more information ring (01440) 783 688.

Free tips for good mood food

AN event to help people boost their mental health with tips on how food can affect your mood is being offered at Haverhill.

Haverhill Volunteer Centre and the Health Mind Centre are holding an information and advice morning at the Sunflower Café, next door to the Library, on Thursday, October 11, between 10am and noon.

The coffee morning aims to raise awareness of diet and lifestyle changes that can help look after your mental wellbeing.

It will also promote the benefits that volunteering can offer such as keeping the mind busy, boosting confidence and offering a chance to meet new people.

The Volunteer Centre offers a variety of opportunities where people can choose what to do and how much time to spare, with help to plan volunteering to fit in with your life.

Anyone who is unable to attend the coffee morning and would like further information on volunteering should contact the Volunteer Centre on (01440) 708 444, office hours are Monday, Wednesday and Friday between 9am and 2pm.

Ancient tale goes on tour

MASTER storyteller Hugh Lupton will be bringing Beowulf – the oldest story in the English language – to a local village.

The tour, by Bury Theatre Royal, visits Clare Town Hall on Monday, October 8, and is suitable for anyone aged over 10. Tickets are available from the box office on (01284) 769 505, or at www.theatreroyal.org

Deal heralds £50k for new children's centre

A RUN-DOWN community centre is to get a new lease of life when it becomes Haverhill's second children's centre.

Chalkstone Community Centre in Strassbourg Square is currently underused, but a new deal has been reached between St Edmundsbury Borough Council which owns the building, and Suffolk County Council.

As part of the deal, a £50,000 grant from the county council's children's centre development fund will be used to improve the building – and part of the building will be leased to the authority for use as a children's centre to provide support, information and drop-in services for families. The rest of the building will still be available for community use.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Members of the borough council's cabinet agreed to a 25-year lease which is expected to generate an annual income of around £4,600 as well as contributions towards rates and service charges. The centre currently costs St Edmundsbury more than £11,000 a year to maintain.

Haverhill already has the Cartwheels Childcare Centre on the Clements estate. But the Chalkstone estate has been identified as having the largest population of children under five in the town and is part of a ward which is categorised as being disadvantaged.

The On-Track service, which currently works with families in the town, is currently based in a vacant shop on the Chalkstone estate, but this would be integrated into the new venue.

The centre will offer support to children, carers and parents, information and advice on childcare, drop-in sessions and activities for children and carers and links to Jobcentre Plus services.

The government has set Suffolk the target of providing 34 children's centre by 2008 and the Haverhill area is due to have two centres ready and open by March 2008.

Diet leaves slimmer James full of beans!

BEANZ meanz a new life for super-slimmer James Skeates, who lost six stones in six months with the help of the humble baked bean.

James, 28, is enjoying renewed energy to keep up with his young children Eleanor, three, and George, 10 months, since slimming down his 21-stone frame to a trimmer 15-stone one.

The weight he lost is equivalent to 90 cans of his favourite food – James was tucking in to at least two large cans a day during his battle with the bulge.

James, a carpenter at Bradnam's Joinery in Haverhill, joined his local Slimming World Class in March and lost around a stone a month to hit his target weight.

James said: "I am six foot six, so I have always been big, but gradually over the years the weight crept on. I thought if I did not do something about it now, once I hit 30 it would get harder as I got older."

"It was largely for my kids I decided to do something, with all the concerns about obesity you hear. I could not tell them not to eat crisps when I was eating them myself."

"I was also drinking two big bottles of full-sugar cola a day."

He added: "I have

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

always liked baked beans, but in the Slimming World plan it is a super food which helps speed up your weight loss.

"It is full of fibre and protein. I was getting through two tins a day, eating them in my breaks at work, then at home with jacket potatoes, wholemeal bread or pasta. I was never hungry, but the weight kept coming off."

"It didn't really cause me any problems eating all the beans, but strangely now I have reached my target weight I have recently suffered a bit more wind."

Julie Collis, who leads three Slimming World classes each week in Haverhill said: "James is a lovely person and we are all very proud of him. It is harder for a man to join a class, but he has been an inspiration to everyone."

James and his wife Claire live at Newton Place, Haverhill.

Isabel Hooley, a dietician for Suffolk NHS Primary Care Trust, said: "Baked beans are fine as part of a healthy, balanced diet, but we would not recommend more than one portion a day. They are high in fibre and protein, but not that many foods are perfect and we would not advise people to eat just one food group."

"It sounds like a crash diet and not something we would suggest long-term."

She added: "Baked beans are low calorie, so if you eat them instead of cheese on toast for example, I would expect you to lose weight."

■ CAN MAN . . . James tucks into another plateful of baked beans. Left, James before he lost the weight.

New meeting over town's health cuts

"People are genuinely concerned that services here are going to deteriorate and the PCT owes it to them to attend a public meeting. We will fight this to the end as I think it is totally unacceptable."

Also at the meeting was Dr Felicity Lewis, who moved to Haverhill from south London five months ago.

She said: "I did not see half the patients there that I do here. If we lost doctors more people will go to A&E which costs even more."

"We work long hours and I regularly see 10 to 15 extra patients a day. We cannot do any more."

Defending the planned cuts,

Ms Taylor-Brown said new contracts for doctors had been agreed on a national formula and approved by GPs, which was considered the fairest way to allocate funds across Suffolk. It took into account factors such as age, deprivation and the number of local immigrant workers.

She said: "There are other practices providing the same services for less money. We have to consider the needs of all patients across Suffolk, but if there is evidence of special circumstances we will look at it. We believe there are efficiency savings which can be made and the changes will be brought in over a five year period to give practices time to adjust."

Bus plan for storage site

A HUGE new distribution centre set to be built in Haverhill should provide buses to get its staff to and from the town centre.

The idea would help avoid traffic congestion, say town council planners.

Chilled food storage and distribution company, Culina has applied to St Edmundsbury Borough Council to establish its fourth major distribution centre in the UK at the Haverhill Business Park, creating around 350 jobs when it opens next year. It would be 191,000 sq ft, equivalent to the size of seven football pitches.

Members of Haverhill Town Council's planning committee said with round-the-clock shift work, there could be around 100 staff members travelling to and from the site each shift. They would like to see a bus service provided for employees at the beginning and end of their shifts.

'Mayor is on the mend'

TOWN Mayor Ted Trebble, who has been in hospital since he suffered a stroke in June is on the mend, councillors have been told.

Coun Trebble was taken ill during a trip to Norfolk and has been in Addenbrooke's hospital for 13 weeks. At their meeting this week, councillors agreed to formally approve his absence up to May 2008, with deputy mayor Les Ager continuing to deputise. Gordon Mussett, town clerk, said Coun Trebble was making good progress and hoped to be transferred to Newmarket Hospital soon to continue with physiotherapy.

'Paint your own graffiti' bid to beat the vandals

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

YOUNGSTERS were given spray paint by the police to transform Haverhill's skatepark with their own artwork.

The site has suffered from vandalism and graffiti over the summer and the town's Safer Neighbourhood teams decided to invite youngsters to improve the look of the area themselves.

Sergeant Sarah Barclay said: "A few graffiti tags are unsightly and can be offensive - but a whole area brightly coloured with original works of art could really add to the skatepark."

"We don't want to stop the youngsters being creative, so getting them to decorate the park how they want it means they can leave their mark and make the area look fun, not run down."

"Their designs will become part of the park permanently and we hope this will reduce the amount of graffiti appearing there in the future."

■ CREATIVE SKILLS . . . youngsters show how vandalism can be turned into an art form with the full backing of the police.

CP.

An artist worked with pupils at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College to generate ideas and teach techniques. Youngsters not studying art but who use the skatepark were able to join in the project over three days last week.

One student said: "I got a real buzz out of doing the spraying and being given the opportunity to do something for the town that the kids can enjoy."

Mick Walker, head of art at Castle Manor, said: "The students have been really focussed and put a great deal of effort and thought into the work."

The project was part of a partnership campaign with West Suffolk Police, Suffolk County Council and other agencies to tackle anti-social behaviour over the summer, with each police district given £2,500 to help tackle issues identified by the community.

Chief Superintendent Mark Cordell said anti-social behaviour had a big impact on the lives of local people and was the type of problem Safer Neighbourhood Teams were set up to deal with.

He said: "A minority of people behaving in a distressing way, whether that be vandalising public places, drinking, swearing, or acting dangerously, can cause great distress to the majority - this funding is being used to deal with those who appear to show little respect for their community, and give them something positive and worthwhile to do instead." Inspector Adrian Dawson, of Haverhill police, said: "The students have worked hard and enjoyed it and this is a great example of what can be achieved by working with young people and our partner agencies."

Pc Will Wright, of Haverhill police, said there was a good response from young people at the park.

"They all had positive feedback saying what a great job had been done and was there any chance of getting lighting so that they can use the park later as the nights draw in," he said.

"I feel this would also make the place more attractive as young people would feel less vulnerable or isolated and they would feel generally safer."

■ OUCH! . . . Michael and his conker, which he kept with him throughout his ordeal.

Pictures: David Johnson 436118.

Conkering hero's visit to casualty

A CONKER hunt ended with a boy being taken to hospital after a brick used to dislodge a conker landed on his head.

The stunned youngster was left with blood gushing from the wound.

But brave five-year-old Michael Devonshire kept the precious conker with him during his ordeal, which ended with him being treated at Addenbrooke's Hospital.

Mum Christina said: "When we got into the ambulance he still had the conker in his hand and he held on to it while we were there and still had it when we came home again."

Michael had gone out hunting for conkers with his 10-year-old sister Catherine and a group of children on the recreation ground in Camps Road, Haverhill, on Saturday afternoon.

Christina said: "They were throwing sticks and bricks up at the tree to get the conkers down."

"It is just one of those silly things that kids do and he just happened to be in the wrong place at the wrong time."

BY Jo Deeks

After being alerted, she rushed from her home in nearby Cavendish Court to see what had happened and now wants to trace a woman who helped Michael get to a nearby surgery before he was taken to hospital.

"By the time I got there he was absolutely covered in blood and I never saw the woman who helped him, who was there with her own child," she said.

"I would just like to know who she is and to be able to thank her for what she did."

Staff at Addenbrooke's stuck the three-inch cut together and after a couple of days at home recovering, Michael is now due to return to Clements Primary School in Haverhill.

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

NOW we are back in the swing of things
after the summer holidays, lots of different activities have been happening around the school.

We welcomed students from Cambridge University who are in the process of gaining experience as teachers in a variety of different subjects. We hope that they gain valuable experience.

■ Year 9 boys had the lucky opportunity to be involved in a poetry day with the Suffolk Poetry Trust, which will be back in a fortnight to hold a poetry workshop for the whole of Year 9.

We hope that this was of interest to them.

■ September 19 and Year 11 geography students went off to Felixstowe to gain research for their coursework.

Sunbathing was not on their agenda
hopefully!

■ Parents of the Year 12s have been invited to a sixth form evening where they will have the chance to discuss any issues and find out about further information they may need.

■ Years 11, 12 and 13 drama students will be going to see the play Bouncers.
We are sure that it will be interesting and that they will enjoy the play.

■ Years 12 and 13
have just celebrated international "talk like a pirate day"
when many students dressed up like pirates and talked like pirates and had lots of fun – Ahoy!

■ In sports news,
the girls' football team played against Ipswich and unfortunately lost 5-2. But, as always, they played their best and we wish them luck with their future games.

■ Some students have the chance of being involved in playing golf once a week at the local golf club for free and they have been having a lot of fun,
as you can well
imagine.

■ In addition, the Year 11 boys' team unfortunately lost by one goal in their match, but I am sure that they will do well
in future games.
Good luck to all those participating in up and coming sports events.

MANORISMS

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

LAST week various guests visited Castle Manor throughout the week. Invited by Miss Vigar, the inspectors enjoyed watching pupils learn and experience the broad curriculum offered by the college. They were particularly impressed by the students' enthusiasm, motivation and behaviour.

■ Also last week,
Year 10 art students travelled to the local skatepark after learning the skill of graffiti. The majority of the impressive street art was produced by the pupils, with specialist artists applying the finishing touches.
Local residents were amazed by the creations and the emphasis on redecorating and redefining the park
for young people.
The final look of the skatepark is very impressive, and I would recommend anyone to go and

admire the young art students' work.

■ Last Friday saw Castle Manor's first Academic Tutoring
Day, with pupils coming into the college throughout the day with their parents to evaluate the first few weeks
of the term as well as setting targets for the future.

■ Student Council elections are taking place this week.
Anybody who wished to apply will have been presented to all the students at the college who have to choose who they want to represent them as their voice of the school. Those lucky enough to be elected will be presented with a place in the council on Friday during assembly.

■ A parents' voice meeting will be held in the Business and Training centre next Tuesday at 7pm.
This is a good chance for parents to have a say in their child's education.

Prison problems under spotlight

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

STAFF members are culturally unaware and sometimes racist at a Suffolk prison struggling to cope with high levels of black and ethnic minority prisoners, according to a damning report.

HMP Highpoint at Stradishall, near Haverhill, was struggling under the pressure of many prisoners far from home and was not an effective training prison, said Anne Owers, the chief inspector of prisons, as she published the report of an announced inspection at the Suffolk prison in May.

Inspectors found almost half of Highpoint's 816 prisoners had nothing to do and more than half stayed on the prisons' wings.

Black and ethnic minority prisoners, nearly half of the population, found the almost all white staff were culturally unaware, and sometimes racist.

Responses were even worse for Muslim prisoners, who made up 20 per cent of the population, with no effective policy, and no recent use of interpretation facilities, for the 184 foreign nationals.

The prison had expanded by a third since the last inspection – but without a similar expansion in activity spaces. This situation was made worse by staffing problems.

Fewer than 7 per cent of prisoners lived within 50 miles, and many urban prisoners, particularly from racial and religious minorities, found their needs were not understood or met.

Staff-prisoner relationships in general, while relatively relaxed, were reactive rather than supportive.

There was a serious problem with drugs, which the extensive perimeter fence made it difficult to control. One consequence was a high level of inmate-on-inmate assaults, though the prison was taking action on this.

Inspectors found that most prisoners at Highpoint had not felt unsafe, and levels of self-harm were low. The standard of education and training available was satisfactory, but there was very little skills training. Too much of the work was unskilled and repetitive, designed to provide income for the prison rather than training for its prisoners.

Anne Owers said: "At the time of the inspection, Highpoint was not an effective training prison. The location, the lack of sufficient purposeful activity, the availability of drugs, and the absence of a coherent resettlement strategy all contributed to undermining its core role."

She added the prison was not meeting the specific needs of its racially and religiously diverse population.

Phil Wheatley, director general of the Prison Service, said: "The chief inspector accurately describes the very challenging operational problems facing the governor and her staff. They are working with specialist HQ staff to promote the race equality agenda at the prison. Plans are also well in advance to increase the amount of accredited activity available to prisoners."

He said efforts were being made to reduce the illegal drug supply.

Child hit

A NINE-YEAR-OLD boy was assaulted by a group of teenagers who hit him on the head and pushed him against railings. The boy was left shaken but unhurt after the attack, which happened at Greenfields Way, Haverhill, at around 7.10pm on Tuesday, September 18. One of the group, all aged 13 to 15 years old, wore a red top and another a black top with a skull on it. All wore hooded tops and one youth had a dog with him. Anyone with information should contact Pc Antony Orr at Haverhill police on (01284) 774 100.

Pump plan

A PLANNING application for two new petrol pumps at Sainsbury's supermarket in Haverhill have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council. The garage at the store in Haycocks Road is currently closed for the alteration work to take place and is due to re-open next month.

Kedington

KEDINGTON Parish Church was the venue on Saturday evening for an excellent performance of brass music with the return of TUBE and Friends in a Brass Menagerie performance, attended by an audience of around 60, who generously acknowledged an excellent programme of varied presentations. The rector, the Rev John Eley, gave a warm welcome to both the visitors and the musicians, as TUBE had performed in the church last year for the same charity of church funds.

All the musicians involved play in various groups around the Haverhill and Cambridge area. TUBE consists of Paul Farr (tuba), Gavin Bowyer and Richard Hall (trumpet), Paul Ryder (horn), and Will Hutchinson (trombone), whilst the Friends consisted of Nick Byers, Gill Bramley and David Minchin (trombones), and Andy Powlson and Chris Millington (trumpets). They performed split into four different groups, 10 piece, quintet, quartet and trio. Keeping them all under excellent control was Dave McClintock who conducts the 50-strong Huntingdonshire concert band, so conducting just 10 posed no problems. The programme opened with two items from TUBE and Friends with Fest Musik der Stadt Wien by Strauss, followed by Brandenburg Concerto No 3 by Bach, leading to two presentations by TUBE, Pavane by Faure and Cheetham's A Brass Menagerie. During the interval wine was provided free of charge, with the option to donate, and a raffle was drawn.

The second half got under way with an item by TUBE Fanfare for the Modern Tube by Ryder followed by Will and Friends in Beethoven's 3 Equale. Then followed a Fanfare for St Edmundsbury by Richard and Friends, arranged by Britten and a mystery interlude by TUBE. TUBE and Friends then combined in The Days of Wine and Flowers by Mancini. To conclude an enjoyable evening TUBE and Friends combined in Tico Tico arranged by Arbeau and Jealousy by Gade.

On behalf of the church, churchwarden Mary Upton thanked all for their support and the musicians for a wonderful night's entertainment.

■ As part of the worldwide coffee morning in aid of MacMillan Nurses, an event is taking place at the Legion Hall on Friday, 9.30-11.15am. Rebecca Oakley has organised the event. Gifts of raffle prizes would be very much appreciated.

■ Suffolk police are holding a street briefing meeting at the community centre next Tuesday 2.30pm and 5pm. This will be an opportunity to air one's views.

■ Diary – Friday: Royal British Legion social evening, Legion Hall, 8pm until midnight. Sunday: Stourhead Benefice Service, Great Thurlow Church, 10am; Church in the Field Service, community centre, 10.30am.

Monday, October 1: RBL bingo, Legion Hall, 8pm. Tuesday, October 2: Garden Society AGM and bring and buy, Legion Hall, 7.30pm.

Hundon

A 19-inch long runner bean was one of the winners when villagers at Hundon brought out their produce for the annual Garden Club Show.

The show was a great success, with a record number of entries.

The Craft Class provided the winner of The Rowlett Cup for "Best in Show".

Sandra Hall's beautiful embroidery picture was the runaway winner, with its ribbons and pearls and exquisite stitching.

Prizes were presented by David Claydon, chairman of the parish council. The winners were: Junior Cup – Sophia Moran; Culinary Plate – Libby Stone; Floral Vase – Irene Caton; Vegetable Cup – Brian Daly; Fruit Trophy – Brian Daly; Floral Arts Cup – Liz Scammell and Eileen Richmond; Photography Trophy – Michael Chinery; Photography Plate – Fiona Ives; Plough Trophy – Eileen Richmond; Premier Shield – Eileen Richmond and Brian Daly; Rowlett Cup for Best in Show – Sandra Hall.

Paws for thought on sculpture

Sir, I have never had the honour of meeting the "famous" cat of Jubilee Walk, indeed I had not even heard of it until it was announced that our hard-earned Council Tax, which we struggle to pay every month (well, where does the grant money come from then?), was to be put towards a statue of this cat. Therefore I cannot vouch for the likeness between the cat and its sculpture. All I can say is, what an amazing creature it must have been to have the ability to catch mice with only a hoola hoop for a head.

However did it manage to see, smell, hear or even eat its prey? It astonishes me to think that this animal could even stand and keep its balance what with its legs and body only being of similar thickness to a garden hosepipe. I look forward to winter time when the work will be finished and we can gaze upon it through a broken window of the bus "shelter" while we guess what time the bus will come. Our little ones may fray our nerves with their whining about being cold and wanting to be home but I am sure that we will be warm inside with patriotic admiration for our hero of Jubilee Walk. Equally, I admire the giant roll of chicken wire that stands so proudly on the roundabout we pass as we go to Cambridge. It puts me in mind of the remaining toilet roll tube. Again, a great contribution to our ever improving town. I may not know much about art, but I know what I like.

■ PHANTOM MENACE ... Pure Energy Multimedia managing director Jason Fitzpatrick, left, with his team and the 'whispering' ghost which has been seen on the stairs.

CP.

Albert makes his presence felt

STAFF at a high tech company in Haverhill discovered they might not be alone when they moved into new premises.

When Haverhill-based Pure Energy Multimedia recently moved to larger premises in the town centre, staff did not expect to discover they might be working with a phantom presence.

Located in the historic Chauntry Mills complex, The Counting House, which dates from 1821, contains a maze of corridors.

Jason Fitzpatrick, managing director, said: "It wasn't until we were actually in residence that we heard, from previous occupants, about the spooky incumbent. Apparently there's a long history of allegedly supernatural phenomena associated with this building.

"There have been intermittent reports over the years of strange footsteps, the sound of whispers and furniture being moved in empty rooms, objects wandering from where they belong and several sightings of a ghostly figure lurking on the stairs.

"It made the hairs stand up on the back of my neck when I was told. I spent a lot of time here in the evenings on my own organising rooms prior to moving in. To be honest, I did experience a couple of eerie incidents I can't really explain. Now our office manager Kelly insists on working in the room closest to the front door."

Steve Bryant, design manager, said: "While it's one thing to watch scary movies featuring haunted places it's another thing to work in one. But we won't let it dampen our spirits.

"This building used to house Gurteen's accountancy office. We reckon one of those Victorian accountants simply couldn't let go! We call him Albert."

Award for hotel hit by tornado

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A HOTEL which had its roof blown off during a tornado just after it opened has sprung back to win its company's top award just four months later.

The Days Inn at Haverhill was forced to close after a freak tornado lifted off its roof in January and was not able to re-open until its roof had been replaced in April.

Now it has received the top grade, 5 Sunbursts, by franchisor Days Inn in its annual quality standards audit, just four months after its re-opening. The rating places the hotel among the very best of the nearly 50 Days Inns and Days Hotels in the UK and Eire.

Sandra Storey, director of business development at Wyndham Hotel Group International said: "It's an outstanding achievement. It's rare for a newly-opened Days property to get the top award, but just what I expected from manager Donna Revell."

Bill Bailey, marketing director at AHM Ltd, the hotel operator was full of praise.

He said: "We are very proud of manager Donna Revell and her team, who have worked so hard to meet the challenges they faced after the hotel lost its roof in the tornado at the beginning of the year. They really deserve this award."

The 80-room hotel has created a big impact on the hotel scene, drawing business from Cambridge and Newmarket as well as locally. It has posted the "house full" sign on a number of occasions.

Youths sought

A GROUP of youths were seen trying car doors in Haverhill in the early hours of Saturday.

The group of around 12 males were seen in Grenadier Road, Haverhill at around 2.40am trying car door handles along the street, opening the door to a purple Ford Escort.

Anyone with information should call Pc Ian Davies at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crime-stoppers on 0800 555 111.

Child carers scoop top county awards

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TWO Haverhill child carers are celebrating winning two of the four awards on offer for the whole of Suffolk.

Jeanette Kempen, who runs the Sandcastle Pre-School Group at Castle Manor Upper School in Haverhill, was named as Early Years Child Carer of the Year, and Bron Marks, of Abbotts Road, Haverhill, was handed the Childminder of the Year award.

They received the recognition at an event in Ipswich to celebrate high quality child-care, with new awards to recognise the contribution of individuals in caring for children, set up by Suffolk County Council.

Ms Kempen, who has been manager at Sandcastles for the past 14 years, said: "I was really chuffed to be nominated, but I just had no idea I would actually win."

"It was all done in Oscar style and when they called my name it was unbelievable. I know Bron because her children used to come to Sandcastles, so I was really pleased for her too."

"I really love my job and it is lovely to get this kind of recognition."

Ms Marks, who has been a childminder for the past seven years, said: "It is wonderful for the town to have two out of four awards, especially when you consider the size of Suffolk. It was just lovely to be nominated, "I did not even give out the leaflets to parents, so it was nice to think that someone went to the trouble of putting my name forward."

"It was just an overwhelming evening, I was completely stunned to win."

Each of the winners received prizes worth at least £500. Nominations for the awards came from children, parents, friends, family, or work colleagues. They were then short listed by a panel of professionals.

Pub set to please with fresh menu

MID-SEPTEMBER may seem a bit early to be thinking about Christmas but tables are already being snapped up for festive meals at the Red Lion pub and restaurant at Sturmer.

Sisters Wendy, Caroline, Angela Bowman and Hannah Robinson have run the business for the past four and a half years, building up a reputation for high quality food, all freshly cooked on the premises. They are always busy, serving around 800 meals a week, but bookings are now coming in fast from families, individuals and companies wanting to hold Christmas celebrations there.

Their Christmas menu is available at lunchtime from Tuesday to Friday or in the evenings from Tuesday to Saturday, between December 4 and 22. The cost is £9.95 for one course, £15.95 for two or £21.95 for three, with a 10 per cent discount for bookings on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Angela said: "We get our regulars that come every Christmas but we are also getting some new ones as well.

■ DINER . . . seats up to 80.

Our full capacity is about 80 people but our maximum for one party is 30. We get a lot of local trade, but we also get people coming in from the Saffron Walden, Newmarket and Cambridge areas. We are getting quite booked up already for Christmas meals.

"We pride ourselves that everything is made fresh, by us on the premises, we don't buy anything in. That includes our desserts, which are very popular. We are a family business, Hannah is having a baby in three weeks, but she is still here working."

The Christmas menu includes tempting starters like smoked salmon and prawn roulade, Norfolk turkey with all the trimmings, a vegetarian option of roasted stuffed pepper and mozzarella and baked white chocolate cheesecake for dessert. To book, ring (01440) 766971.

Charity race is fantastic, says Olympian hero

■ MARK FOSTER . . . starting race. 435690.

■ WINNER . . . a Glassworks runner. 435627.

Story by John Morgan
Pictures by Warren Gunn and Richard Marsham
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

COLLEGES and courtyards echoed with the pounding footsteps of thousands of runners in the Chariots of Fire race.

The annual charity relay saw about 2,200 runners compete to raise money for the Arthur Rank Hospice at Home service on Sunday.

The event, inspired by the famous race featured in the film Chariots of Fire, has raised more than £500,000 for good causes in the past 16 years. Runners divided up into teams of six. Each member had to struggle through one lap of the picturesque 1.7-mile course, which took in King's, Clare and Trinity colleges.

The Glassworks gym 'A' team took top spot with a time of 50 minutes 40 seconds, beating last year's winners, Cambridge University's Hare and Hounds 'A' team into second place.

As the fastest team, Glassworks were awarded the Sir Arthur Marshall Trophy. The field stretched back to a team that came in just after two hours. The race, backed by our sister paper The Cambridge

Evening News, law firm Hewitsons and financial firm Grant Thornton UK LLP, was started by Mark Foster, the record-breaking swimmer and four-time British Olympian.

Mr Foster, who lives in St Neots, was delighted to be involved. He said: "It's fantastic – I just wish I could take part! The Arthur Rank Hospice is such a worthy cause. It's a very small charity and a very local charity.

"And for thousands of people to come out running and take part in exercise is great. If we can't find half an hour a day for ourselves to get some exercise, what hope have we got?"

A team from the Rosie Hospital won the People's Cup for being the best entertainers.

Their runners were dressed as doctors and carried a plastic baby baton. Teams now have until December to raise as much money as they can from sponsors.

Golfers' drive to help charities

THREE local charities will benefit from a charity golf tournament which raised a record £10,000 this year.

More than 80 golfers swung into action for Havebury Housing Partnership's third annual golf day, held at Haverhill Golf Club.

Focus 12, the drug and alcohol rehabilitation charity; the Multiple Sclerosis Society and St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds will all receive a financial boost from the event.

Clive Gillam, corporate fundraiser for St Nicholas Hospice, said: "We are extremely grateful to Havebury for supporting the hospice and the money raised will help considerably with the work we do across West Suffolk for people with life limiting illnesses and their families."

Teams from Havebury, local businesses, organisations and individuals competed for a range of prizes. The event ended with an evening meal, raffle and charity auction with prizes donated by Castle

Computers, Wheatley Associates, The Beck Group and Lloyds TSB.

Chip Somers, of Focus 12, said: "Havebury has consistently backed Focus 12 for the past few years and this donation will enable three people to receive a full programme of treatment."

Barry Taylor, of Bury St Edmunds MS, added: "The money raised will help provide much needed assistance to people affected by Multiple Sclerosis in the local area and will also help secure the future of a new drop-in centre at the Disability Resource Centre in Bury every Thursday morning."

Plan for flats

REVISED plans to build a shop and flats after demolishing an existing shop and office building at Haverhill have been submitted to planners. The plan is to build four two-bedroom and four one-bedroom flats over three storeys at the front and four storeys at the rear of 83 High Street, as well as providing cycle and bin storage, access gates and four parking bay. It was submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Lectern stolen

A BRASS lectern in the shape of an eagle has been stolen from a church. The theft from the parish church in Church Street, Withersfield, happened between 7am and 7.30am on Thursday, September 13. The lectern is 5 feet tall and weighs more than 100 kilos. Anyone with information about the theft should call Pc Dean Bailey at Clare Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

The London Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children was founded in 1884.

It changed its name to The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC) in 1889.

Its aim then was to protect children from cruelty, support vulnerable families, campaign for changes to the law and raise awareness about abuse.

Today, the NSPCC looks very different, but its purpose remains the same: to end cruelty to children.

Our aim

We want to see a society where all children are loved, valued and able to fulfil their potential. To do this, we have four objectives:

- To mobilise everyone to take action to end child cruelty.
- To give children the help, support and environment they need to stay safe from cruelty.
- To find ways of working with communities to keep children safe from cruelty.
- To be, and be seen as, someone to turn to for children and young people.

Stage terms for two queens of soap

FEW TV characters are more iconic than Dallas' Sue Ellen Ewing. The actress beneath those famous shoulder pads, Linda Gray, is in Cambridge this week as the lead role of Aurora Greenaway in Terms of Endearment at the Arts Theatre. The play – in which she stars with another former soap legend, Coronation Street's Suranne Jones – takes its inspiration from both the novel and the Oscar winning 1983 film starring Debra Winger and Jack Nicholson. Linda said: "Aurora is unique. I'm loving playing her, I've never played a character like this and it's great fun. "She's bright all the time, she'll tell you what she thinks and is not terribly concerned about what you think and feel." The play runs until Saturday at 7.45pm with a 2.30pm matinee on Saturday. Tickets are £10-£30. To book call (01223) 503 333.

Playing anti-heroine Carmen 'suits me'

By Nik Shelton

THERE are plenty of lovelorn maidens littering the annals of operatic history – but Carmen is very different.

The eponymous central character in Bizet's classic French opera was such a liberated force of nature that the piece caused quite a stir when it was first performed in 1875.

The story sees fiery gypsy girl Carmen woo a corporal, encourage him to mutiny against his superiors before cruelly dropping him for a bullfighter. Critics pronounced it immoral and one famous singer of the day refused to sing the part.

But for respected mezzo soprano Heather Shipp – who takes up the role at the Cambridge Corn Exchange on Sunday – it's a role she has taken to her heart.

Heather said: "She's a really hot headed woman and takes everything to the extreme. She was the first anti-heroine and I think audiences just couldn't face the fact that she wasn't truly good through and through.

"She's still provocative. Even these days where women are emancipated she still seems remarkably free and I think that is the gypsy aspect of her character. She's a rolling stone and never wants to be tied down, she just wants to live for the moment." Heather is fitting the tour in between her duties at the Royal Opera House where she is performing in Wagner's Ring Cycle – "It's amazing – big mythological stuff, you know," she says excitedly.

The Carmen production comes from Ellen Kent's company, who are regular visitors to the Corn Exchange, and features the Chisinau National Philharmonic Orchestra.

"I haven't done Carmen for about four years but I had a two-year period where it was all I seemed to sing," Heather says.

"Opera companies seem to go through phases where for some reason they all choose to do the same piece and everybody was doing Carmen – but very differently each time, each director has their own idea about how they want to play it. I do love it and I think it suits me."

Carmen is at the Corn Exchange on Sunday. Tickets are £21.50-£31.50. Call (01223) 357 851 to book.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

A hot hatch for grown-ups

It looks like an SUV.

It has the jacked-up ride height, the chunky wheels, the stylish exterior and classy interior of an SUV, but it isn't one. Instead, think of the CX-7 as a driver's car with a lofty driving position and plenty of space and the CX-7 makes sense.

The CX-7 is Mazda's entry into new territory but the Japanese firm has decided to stick to what it does best and make the new car good to drive – very good, in fact.

At the recent launch, I found the CX-7 immediately engaging. It impresses with the ride and handling and makes you want to bury your right foot in the carpet and keep the smiles coming. The handling is sporty and better than many lower slung cars but, probably because of the SUV slant, very comfortable. It copes with all qualities of road admirably and you have to be going over bumps at silly speeds to feel uncomfortable. If you want to take a break from everyday driving though and hustle the CX-7 along a bit, it rises to the challenge. It handles excellently, rides superbly and loves a sweeping stretch of tarmac.

The engine kicking everything along is a turbo charged 2.3-litre

FIRST DRIVE

CX-7 keeps fun element

CHRIS LILLY

petrol unit which produces more than the magic 100bhp per tonne and pulls the 1,669kg car along with 256bhp. The CX-7 will take eight seconds to hit 62mph from nought and goes on to 130mph.

What the figures don't tell you though is the feeling that, in all gears apart from sixth, there is always a feeling of power available if needed. The turbocharger kicks in from low revs so as soon as you accelerate from a cruise, the Mazda will push you along quickly. If you drive reasonably sensibly though, the four-cylinder engine will return almost 28mpg.

Mazda has been sensible and kept it simple on the buying front. There is one engine choice (currently), one model specification and one option. The metallic paint will cost £375, but the leather trim, air-conditioning, parking sensors, cruise control and six CD auto changer with nine-speaker Bose system all come as standard. The interior doesn't need toys to keep you comfortable though. The seats are supportive, the dashboard is stylish and easy to fathom and all the necessary driving information is clearly shown in driver oriented, sports-style binnacles.

■ THE MAZDA CX-7... putting some spring into the SUV sector.

Passengers in the rear have decent space and even the tallest people have enough room – not loads, but enough. The boot capacity is competitive and Mazda has included its excellent Karakuri easy-to-fold seat system to increase luggage space when you need it.

BASICALLY...

There are few faults with the CX-7 and there are fewer if you don't intend to take it off-road.

FOOTBALL

It's despair as Angels go down

Delaware Feather Angels 3 Glemsford SC 4

SUDBURY & DIST SUNDAY LEAGUE, DIVISION FIVE

DELAWARE were left seeking their first win of the campaign after again falling to defeat. They started strongly, but went 1-0 down midway through the first half. Persistent pressure from the home side, however, resulted in a deserved equaliser when Mark Bailey scored direct from a corner right at the death of the first period. After the break, some rapid forward play from Glemsford saw them race into a 4-1 lead with three quick goals, seemingly putting the game beyond Delaware. The Angels were still able to fight their way back into the match with some encouraging passing play, that firstly saw Bailey coolly slot home for his second of the match and Sean McCormack grabbing another, setting up a frantic final five minutes with the score at 4-3. In the end Glemsford held on for the victory to go top of the table. Delaware's man-of-the-match was Graham Pilbrow.

Grampian strikers sting the Hornets

Histon Hornets U14 A 1
Grampian Gunners U14 3

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION U14A

GRAMPIAN came away with the points with a comfortable victory at Histon.

The scoreline was a little flattering to the home side as the visitors squandered chance after chance.

Two first-half goals from Luke Halls and Jordan Jackson saw Grampian lead into the break.

Captain Luke Youngs struck early in the second half to seal the match.

Histon scored a consolation strike from the edge of the box, but could not find any other way past Grampian's excellent central pairing of Reece Rodway and William Howe.

Stretham Sporting U12 2
Haverhill Rovers Yth U12 6

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION U12D

GOOD work down the right saw Danny Knight deliver the near post cross that Ryan Pulman glanced across the keeper to put Rovers 1-0 ahead.

Stretham's front man was then foiled by the alert Eliot Cranham, before Rovers settled and passed the ball well, with Jordan

Cowdrey linking up with Keegan Ayre to find Christian Rose, whose whipped in cross was met by Pulman for his and Rovers' second.

Stretham kept plugging away and found the back of the net with a good finish over the keeper for 2-1.

Rovers started the second half brightly as Ayre's cross was pulled back across the box by Rose for Pulman to complete his hat-trick and make it 3-1.

Stretham then took advantage of a missed penalty to race up the other end and pull back to 3-2.

Rovers created another goalmouth scramble that saw Ryan Pulman drill home for his fourth from inside the area.

Danny Knight then scored the goal of the game, beating the full-back before smashing his shot into the top corner for 5-2.

Stretham then broke well as they refused to give up, forcing Cranham into a good reflex save to his right.

Jack Elliott then added his name to the score sheet, straight from a corner, which curled over everyone and sneaked in at the far post to complete the scoring.

West Wrattling U11 6
Saffron Walden Town U11 0

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION U11A

WRATTING hit six well worked team goals to overcome a Walden team that battled well.

The first half was even in possession, although most of the action was in the Walden half.

It was not until the 23rd minute that Elliott was fouled in the area and blasted home the penalty.

In the second half, after five minutes of Walden pressure, Bush picked up the ball on the left, took on the entire visiting defence before netting a great individual goal.

This was the turning point, as Stevenson notched, followed by a fourth from Lambert.

After a quality move between Cooper and Elliott, Foster grabbed his first of the campaign.

The final goal was scored by Scotton from a pass by Payne following a Stevenson corner.

Robert Foster was named as West Wrattling's man-of-the-match.

Haverhill lose after being hit on break

HAVERHILL were unable to turn their domination into points when they entertained Hadleigh.

Skipper Dave Quinney, Kieran McDonogh and Ricky Harris all scored tries with Jake Plumridge converting two.

However, they were undone by a breakaway try and Quinney said: "We had 80 per cent of the possession and dominated in the line-out and scrum. We pushed them around all day.

"We dominated everywhere bar the midfield really, which is where their tries came from.

Haverhill 19 Hadleigh 26

EASTERN COUNTIES LEAGUE, DIVISION TWO

They had a runaway try as we were just a yard from their line and they ran the length of the pitch to score.

"We dominated and lost just on ball in the scrummaging, winning all their's and our ball.

"The line-out worked very well for us, stealing their ball as well. We thought we deserved the result, but we didn't get it.

"It was a disappointing result, especially at home.

"We made them look good, to be fair."

■ RICKY HARRIS ... among Haverhill's try-scorers.

Rovers return to winning ways

HAVERHILL scored twice in each half as they overcame their weekend FA Vase disappointment with a resounding 4-0 Ridgeons League victory over Walsham le Willows on Tuesday.

Rovers, who knocked their opponents out of the FA Cup earlier in the season, went ahead after 21 minutes of the Premier Division game when Marcus Hunt fired in a penalty, and Marc Abbott doubled their advantage with a crisp half-volley which went in off the post.

It was 3-0 with 20 minutes remaining when Richard Heller shrugged off his marker and coolly lobbed the goalkeeper.

Steve Taylor's men completed an excellent night's work when Sam Green found the net with a well-controlled effort to round off the scoring.

The result went some way to tempering Rovers' disappointment at their Vase exit on Saturday. They were beaten 4-2 by Suffolk rivals Leiston in their second qualifying round tie at Hamlet Croft.

Manager Taylor felt tired legs were to blame for Haverhill throwing away a two-goal lead and ultimately going out.

Adam Ben-Saud headed home Marc Abbott's corner to give Rovers a half-time lead, and Heller showed excellent close control to beat two defenders and slot past the goalkeeper seven minutes after the restart.

But Haverhill's midweek exertions against Mildenhall in the FA Cup caught up with them, and they conceded four times in the last half an hour.

A disappointed Taylor said: "We were controlling the game and then the wheels came off. We were dead on our feet."

"Hopefully it was just a case of tired legs, but it's the first time I have seen us cave in and we really should not have lost the game."

Rovers are in FA Cup action on Saturday when they entertain Hitchin Town in a second qualifying round tie.

They have a Ridgeons League, Premier Division match on Tuesday evening when Saffron Walden visit Hamlet Croft.

■ ON TARGET . . . Richard Heller, who scored for Haverhill against Walsham le Willows and Leiston.

Delight for Tom as he pens new deal with Essex

RISING star Tom Westley has signed a two-year contract with Essex County Cricket Club, taking him up to the end of the 2009 season. The 18-year-old, from Weston Colville, has been involved with the county's senior squad as an Academy professional for the last two seasons. Westley, who plays his club cricket for Saffron Walden, made his first-team debut in Essex's one-day match against Sri Lanka in June 2006 before he was given his first-class bow for Essex against Cambridge UCCE in May. Westley appeared in four LV County Championship games this summer – with a highest score of 72 against Somerset at Chelmsford earlier this month – and two NatWest Pro40 games.

He also featured in one Under-19 Test and five Under-19 one-day internationals this summer, where he also served notice of his off-spinning ability with match-figures of 7 for 131 in the first Test at Scarborough. Westley told the Essex CCC website:

"With the Academy pro contracts I've had over the last couple of years I was obviously hoping to get a full-time one so, after a pretty decent year, I'm privileged to get a two-year contract. "It helped massively to go on the pre-season tour of Dubai because it was the first time I'd got to be around the players for a long time and also made me start to think that if things went well I might get to play the odd first-team game. As the season went on I finished in the first-team, which has been an honour." Essex chief executive David East told the website: "Tom is another shining example of how well our Academy system is working. His progress over the last couple of seasons has been excellent, and we are all very hopeful that we have another star in the making." Westley will be spending two months in Australia from mid-October to mid-December, before returning to Essex for a month before, hopefully, flying out to Malaysia for the Under-19 World Cup in January.

■ SIGNED ON . . . Tom Westley, whose new contract will secure his future at Essex County Cricket Club until the end of the 2009 season.
